

Black History Month

Coloring Pages

All new Max & Ruby shows 1/28-2/1 @ 12:30am

© 2013 Viacom International Inc.

Black Cowboys

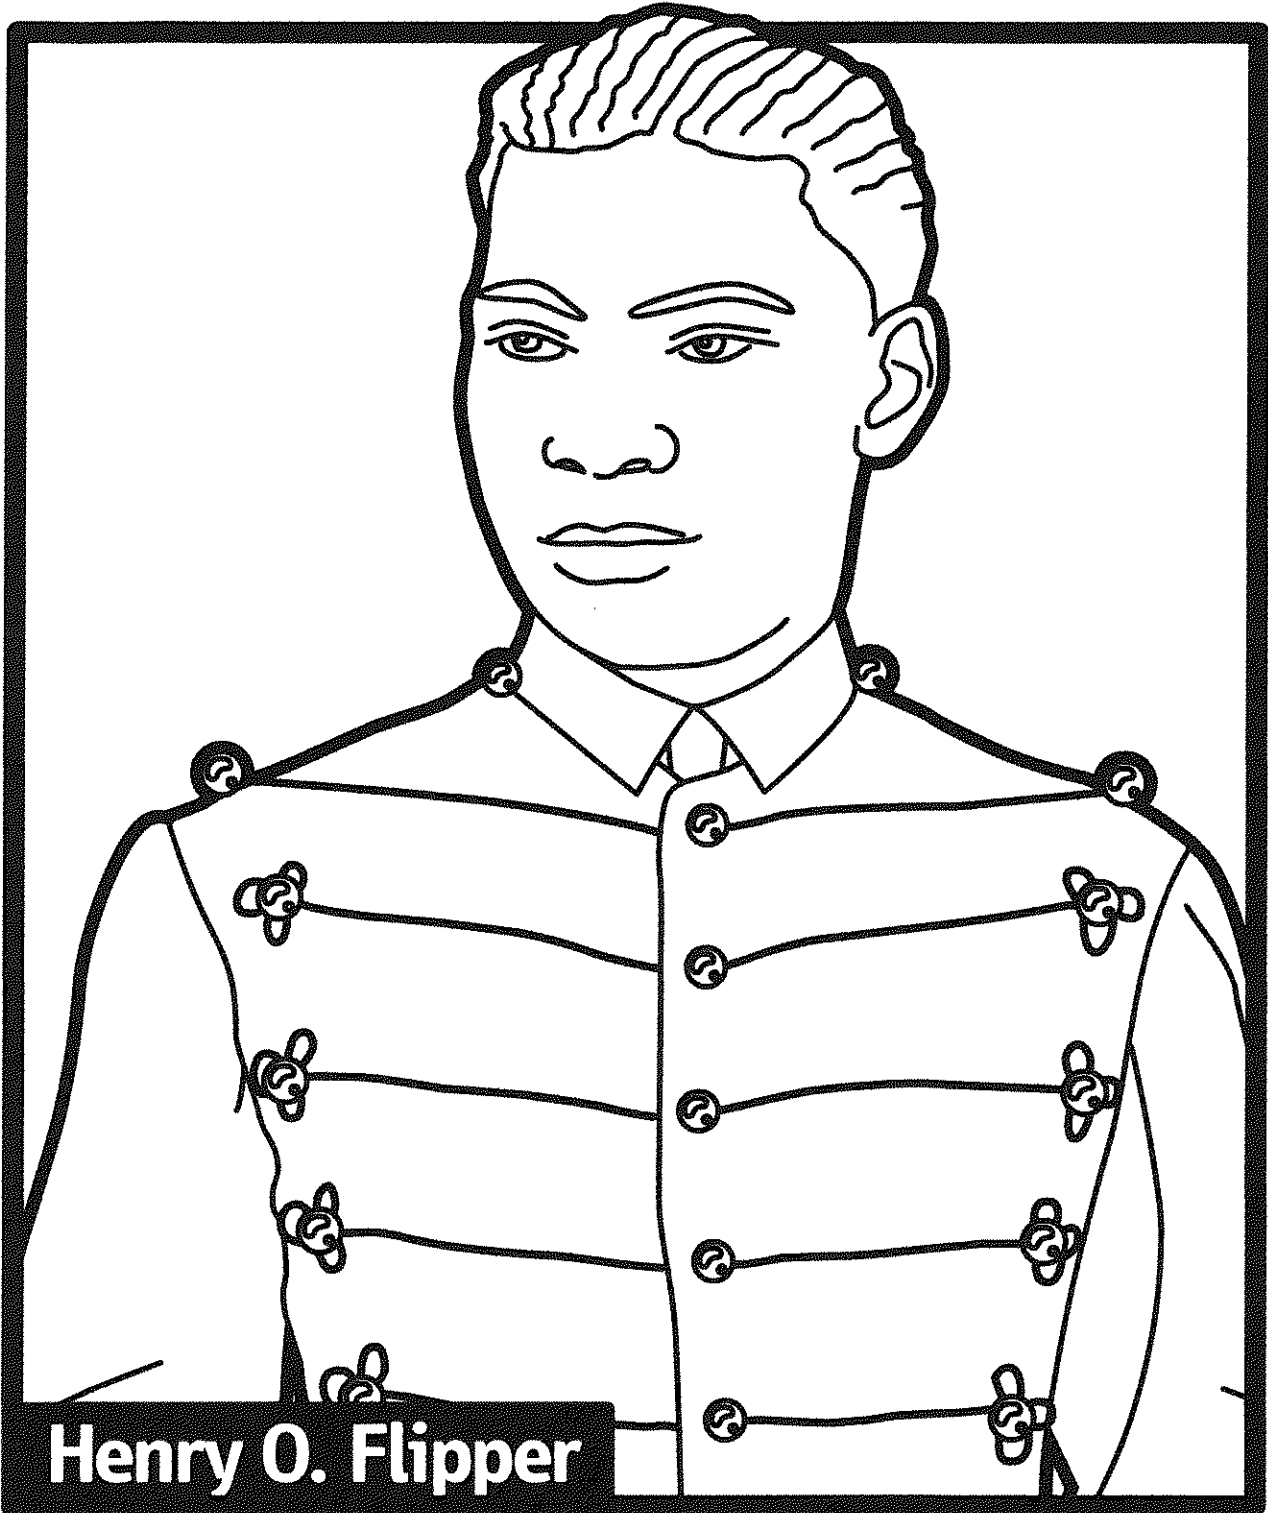

Nat Love, Bose Ikard, and other African American cowboys worked the great cattle drives of the late 1800s and early 1900s. These skilled cowboys played a major role in settling the West.

All new Max & Ruby shows 1/28-2/1 @ 12:30am

© 2013 Viacom International Inc.

Buffalo Soldiers

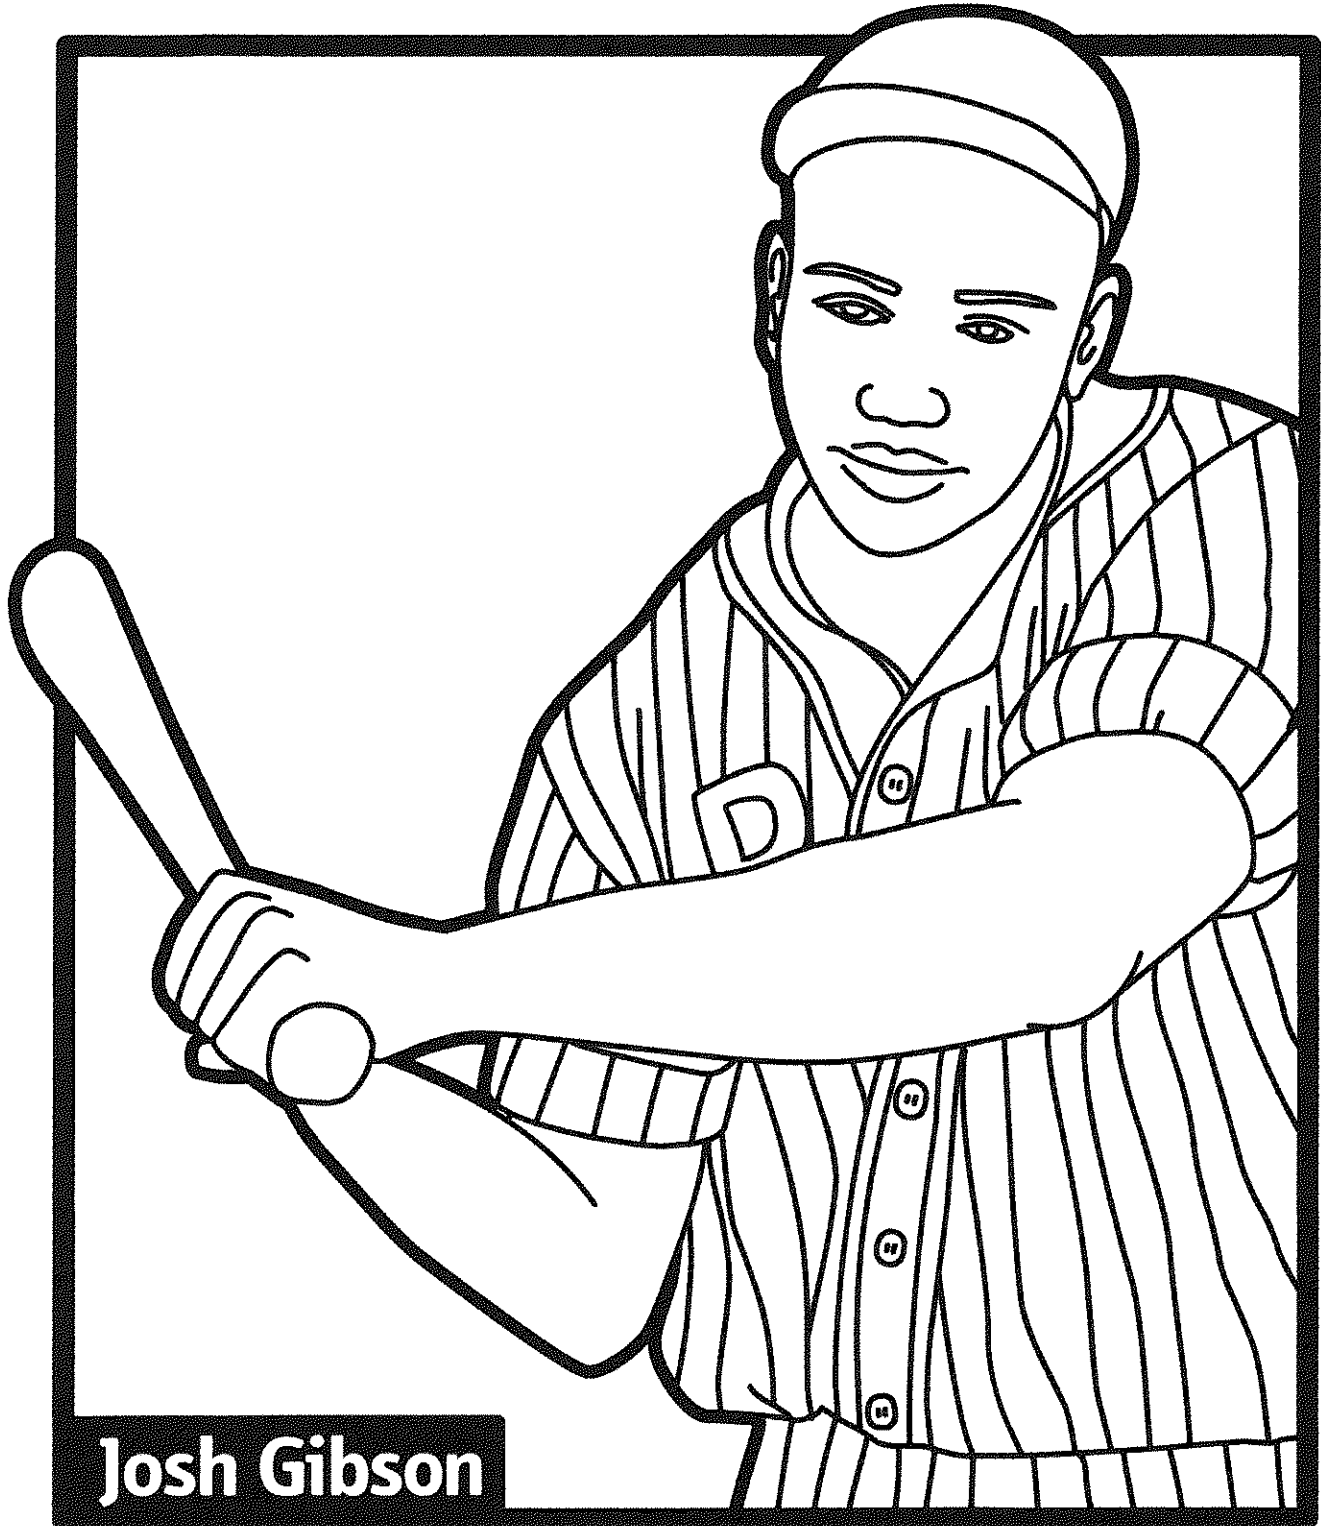

Many African American men joined the Army after the Civil War. Plains Indians called these men "Buffalo Soldiers." Lt. Henry O. Flipper, the first black graduate from West Point, was the most famous of these soldiers.

All new Max & Ruby shows 1/28-2/1 @ 12:30am

© 2013 Viacom International Inc.

The Negro Baseball Leagues

Baseball Hall of Fame members Josh Gibson (catcher), Jackie Robinson (infielder), and Satchel Paige (pitcher) began their baseball careers in the "all-Negro" baseball leagues at a time when African American players weren't allowed to play in the Major Leagues.

All new Max & Ruby shows 1/28-2/1 @ 12:30am

© 2013 Viacom International Inc.

Tuskegee Airmen

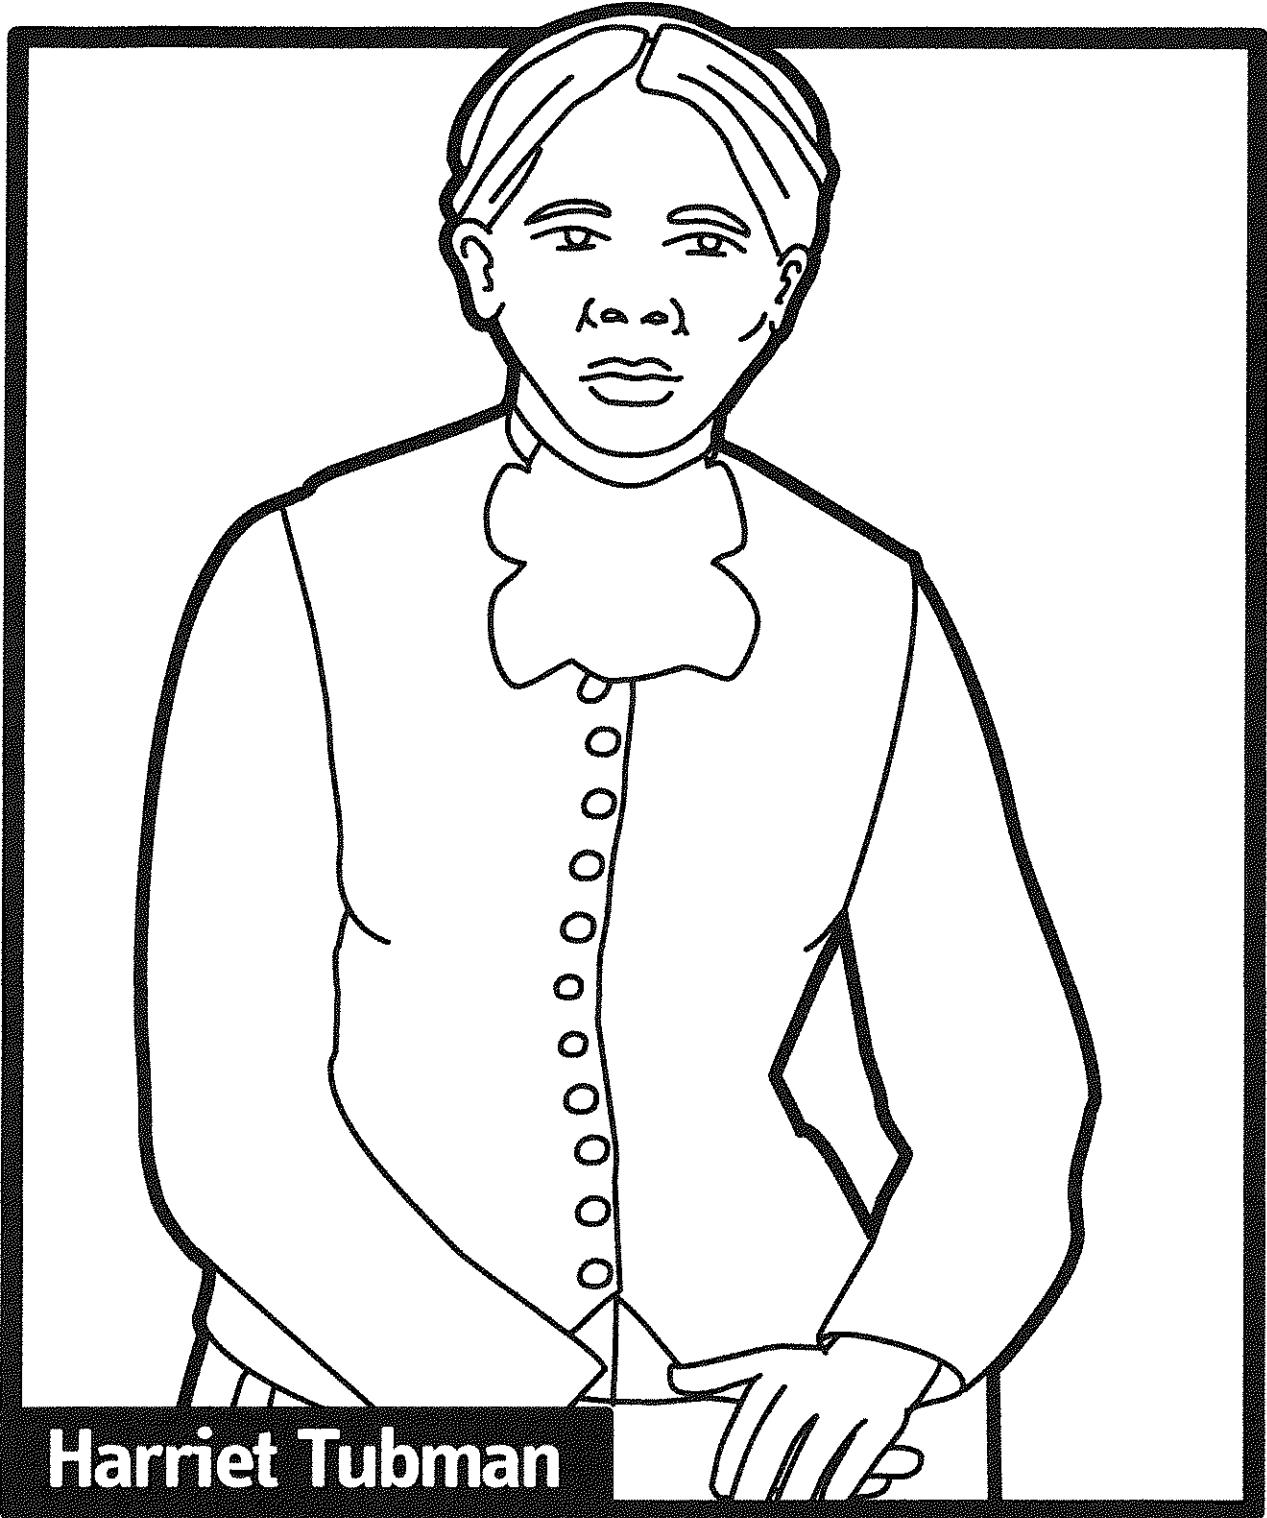

The 99th Pursuit Squadron was the first group of African American fighter pilots trained for combat. Based on the Army airfield at the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama, these pilots fought bravely during World War II.

All new Max & Ruby shows 1/28-2/1 @ 12:30am

© 2013 Viacom International Inc.

The Underground Railroad

This wasn't an actual railroad, but groups of people (black and white) who helped slaves from the South escape to the North. A former slave herself, Harriet Tubman helped over 300 slaves escape to freedom.

All new Max & Ruby shows 1/28-2/1 @ 12:30am

© 2013 Viacom International Inc.